If these clients have already purchased an e book from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do that by making a sales web page for the new book, but don't embrace a price on that page. As an alternative, add a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to assist you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out costs by making a number of duplicate sales pages with different prices on each page. Be certain your gross sales copy is strictly the same on every web page, and includes your promoting-handle sentence. Then figure out for every web page the conversion ratio between guests to your web site and sales of your book. This will inform you what your optimum value is.

Ultimately, if you've written a book that solves a downside or presents a new method, your book will usher in both traffic and profits. So be sure to write that promoting-deal with sentence that sums up what problem your e book solves and what the benefits of your e book will probably be to the customers who purchase it.
